SUMMARY

Product Designer with 2+ years of experience designing end-to-end B2B and healthcare products across 0-to-1 and scaling environments. Skilled in user research, information architecture, interaction design, and design systems, with a track record of shipping developer-ready work in close partnership with engineering and product teams. Comfortable owning ambiguous problems from discovery through launch.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Product Designer - SuperHealth May 2026 - Jul 2026

Healthcare technology (maternal and postpartum care)

- Built the company design system from the ground up, delivering 50+ reusable components with typography, color, spacing, and interaction standards that unified the product UI and reduced repeat design work across the team.
- Redesigned the end-to-end appointment booking experience by defining separate journeys for first-time users, standard members, and VIP members, clarifying booking eligibility rules and in-flow guidance.
- Designed core experiences for the Superbirth web app, covering onboarding, pregnancy tracking, appointment management, educational content, and postpartum care.
- Partnered with engineers to specify states, edge cases, and handoff documentation, keeping shipped screens consistent with design intent.

Product Designer - CNVRT Labs Sep 2024 - Feb 2026

B2B SaaS, HR technology

- Led UX design end to end for a B2B rewards and recognition platform, owning research, product strategy, and interface design in a fast-paced 0-to-1 environment.
- Ran market, user, and competitor research to identify workflow friction and product opportunities, translating findings into structured user flows, information architecture, and wireframes.
- Built a scalable UI component library and detailed design specifications for seamless developer handoff, enabling the team to ship consistently within system constraints.
- Facilitated design reviews with founders and engineering to align scope, prioritise features, and resolve trade-offs before build.

Co-Founder and Creative Director - Herbal Mitra Jul 2023 - 2024

Direct-to-consumer wellness brand

- Co-founded a consumer brand from scratch and scaled it to INR 5 lakh in monthly revenue.
- Owned brand identity, packaging, and digital storefront design, and directed marketing creative across campaigns.
